“One-of-a-Kind” - Over 150 Performance/year

Reading Rocks...Your Imagination!

NO Lectures - NO Power Point - NO Reading Excerpts

“Instead of the typical lecture or PowerPoint presentation, I turn the experience into a live theater performance. I guarantee it will be the most inspirational, educational and unforgettable author visit/literary enrichment program your school has ever participated in,” Joe Shandrowski - Author/Performer

K-2/3: Storytelling & Imagination: Your students will leave the performance more excited about reading than ever before.

Gr3-5/6: Your students will leave the performance with a better understanding of why a solid foundation of reading is the key to creative, interesting and effective writing.

More School Visits, Referrals, References and Testimonials than any other Author Visit/Literary Enrichment Program in the Country

"The teachers raved about this. So much better than the typical author visit," Ruth Regan, LMS, Cottle School, Tuckahoe, NY (PARP)

"Our school is interested in having you come in for 2 shows to end PARP. School#2 had great things to say about their experience!" Peggy D, PTA, Oceanside, NY

"Super Awesome "Reading Rocks!" Pep Rally! Huga Tuga came to celebrate the end of Reading Week with an interactive pep rally about reading that was informative, imaginative, and celebrated literacy!" South School News, New Canaan, CT

"I wanted to thank you for an amazing show. The kids and teacher had a great time!!!" Denise A (PTA/PARP), West Gates School, Lindenhurst, NY

"Thank you for the wonderful performance at our school," Carol K, Ox Ridge School PTO, Darien CT

"The grades 3 through 5 performance stressed the relevance of reading in order to stimulate imagination. For the younger group, Joe told the story of his Wonder Series sea monster, Huga Tuga, using colorful props and role playing. Both groups left the performance more excited about reading and writing and the importance of their imaginations," Carpenter School (newspaper), Old Bridge, NJ

"Our overall student AND teacher response to Joe's visit was incredibly positive. In fact, we only had positive, delighted responses! Joe was a big hit. The 3rd and 4th grade teachers were very impressed by the positive message Joe imparted regarding the need for high volume reading and how voluminous reading and quality writing are directly related," Judy N, Teacher, Haddam School, Higganum CT

"The students and teachers keep telling me all day about how wonderful your visit was today. They all loved it! A 3rd grade referenced your triangle of Reading-Imagination-Writing to one of the 3rd grade teachers. You definitely inspired and made a GREAT impression!" Sandy B, LMS, Franklin Borough School, NJ

"Thanks for the visit yesterday! I received a lot of positive feedback!!" Brendan E, LMS, Torrigrford School, Torrington, CT

"Please accept Hebron Elementary School's sincere gratitude for an exceptional program. So many students and teachers gave rave reviews," Amy C (& Reading Dept), Principal, Hebron School, Hebron CT

"On March 9th, we had a fabulous cultural arts program. Author and storyteller, Joe Shandrowski, visited our school and shared his talents with us. We had a pep rally for reading. The children were active participants throughout his program and kept them engaged," Mrs. Blasiak & Mrs. Kulmann, Teachers, Burr School, Higganum, CT

"We dove into PARP week, with a visit from the Huga Tuga Pep Rally for Reading!! Special thanks to Brittany & Theresa for putting together such a great PARP Program!" St. James School Facebook, Smithtown, NY

"Mr. Shandrowski was unlike any other author that has visited our school.

Instead of merely talking about his craft lecture-style, he had a set with lights, music, and special effects to hold the students' interest. He adjusted his program for all students, thus both challenging and entertaining students from Kindergarten up to fifth grade. I highly recommend the program to every school," Joanna Teodosio, Teacher/Cultural Arts Director, Calf Pen School - Milford CT

"To kickoff the school's annual Parents As Reading Partners program, Eastplain School hosted author Joe Shandrowski. In his Huga Tuga Live Pep Rally for Reading presentation. Mr. Shandrowski took students through the process of creating characters, as well as writing and illustrating his book Huga Tuga and the Seashell Mystery. During his visit, he really stressed to students the importance of the imagination and reading," Plainedge NY, School Facebook

"On Tuesday morning we attended our kick off assembly for PARP, called Hugga Tugga. The author that visited us, Joe Shandrowski, sure did get us excited about reading!" Mrs. Pisani, Teacher, Moreau School, S.Glens Falls NY
